[redacted]
[redacted] was interviewed at her place of employment. [redacted] is employed as a receptionist [redacted]

[redacted] After being advised of the identity of the interviewer and the nature of the interview, [redacted] provided the following information:

[redacted] WALESKA MARTINEZ, female Hispanic, date of birth October 15, 1963, who was one of the victims on United Airlines Flight # 93. [redacted] MARTINEZ [redacted] for seven (7) years and have resided at [redacted] since 1998.

On September 11, 2001, at approximately 06:15 AM, MARTINEZ was seen off at her residence [redacted]

[redacted] MARTINEZ was en-route via taxi-cab to Newark International Airport, to fly to San Francisco on business for her employer, the United States Census Bureau.

[redacted] the Path Train to go to work from Jersey City, NJ, to the World Trade Center Path Station in lower Manhattan. On September 11, 2001, [redacted] left her residence at approximately 08:30 AM, used the Path Train to Manhattan but due to the attack the train was re-routed to Grand Central Station. [redacted] used the NYC Subway System to go to downtown Manhattan. The subway stopped en-route to downtown Manhattan, and due to the attack did not move and at approximately 12:00 PM [redacted] and the other passengers were escorted off the train. [redacted] returned to her residence and was informed by [redacted] that United Airlines Flight # 93 had been hijacked and crashed.

[redacted] was informed that a GTE Airfone call from United Airlines Flight # 93 was placed to the Dratel Group telephone number 212-509-3400 at 09:45 AM for 138 seconds. [redacted] stated that she was not in the office at that time and she received no message that MARTINEZ had called. [redacted] believes that due to the fact that the Dratel Group is located in close proximity to the WTC, the switchboard at Dratel was receiving numerous calls from family and friends of employees. Due to the large volume of calls, callers were placed on hold and it is
